Medical services rely too heavily on 3rd party communication, missing the opportunity to connect with Deaf patients.
Universal graphic expressions enable medical professionals and Deaf patients to communicate through the simple act of pointing.
Visual communication cards shape the interactions between medical professionals and Deaf individuals.